PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

PRESENTATIONS, INTRODUCTIONS, RECOGNITIONS

1. San Bernardino County Fire Chief Dan Munsey

San Bernardino County Fire Chief Dan Munsey, Deputy Chief Tom Marshall, and Supervisor Dawn Rowe presented information on the proposed FP-5 Special Tax.

Mayor Drozd opened public comment.

Dorothy Hennasy, Yucca Valley inquired on the property clean-up process for fire prevention.

David Jarvi, Yucca Valley spoke in opposition of the proposed tax, and suggested research be conducted on Yucca Valley forming its own fire department.

With no other members of the public wishing to speak, Mayor Drozd closed public comments.

Mayor Pro Tem Abel thanked Chief Munsey for the presentation, and commented on fire station placement. Abel inquired on the lack of a competing ballot measure.

Council Member Lombardo inquired on the proposed 3% increase every year, and noted concern that Yucca Valley already pays for a larger portion of fire services.

Council Member Schooler expressed that the emotions are still high in the community on the past FP-5 tax and thanked the group for the presentation and the County's consideration of reducing costs and increasing efficiency. Schooler inquired on any potential funding alternatives if the FP-5 tax measure is not successful in November.

Council Member Denison spoke on fabulous fire service delivery levels in the area for residents and visitors.

Mayor Drozd reported he has heard a few comments on the topic in the community, mostly for equitability among all parcels.
